Carla Auld- BIOGRAPHY

Flutist, Carla Auld is a soloist and chamber musician who promotes the performance and recording of new classical and cross-over music by various composers throughout the world. Ms. Auld's solo debut CD, "Beauty in America", features the works of living American composers and premieres two NEW works by Mark O'Connor and Steve Giammarino for flute and orchestra. The CD is available under the MSR Classics record label and has been described as "entirely captivating and impressive". Jerry Dubins, editor of FanFare Magazine called it " ... Beguiling ... perfect technical command ... music made for listening ease and pleasure." She has performed regularly as a soloist with the Pompton Festival Orchestra and several other ensembles throughout the New York Metro Area.

Ms. Auld is a founding member of the ensemble UpTown Flutes, winners of the Artist International Chamber Music Award, which included a performance at Carnegie Hall in 2002 and has release 3 CDs entitled "A Flute Renaissance", "An UpTown Christmas", and "21st Century Gems". She also performs in the flute and voice ensemble Cassandra Duo, along with mezzo-soprano, Karen Leigh-Post premiering commissions from Allen Cohen and Jason Hoogerhyde to name a few. Ms. Auld has recently joined forces with Guitarist, Ana Maria Rosado to form a spirited and dynamic Latin-American Music ensemble, ¡DUO CARAMBA! presenting classical and contemporary repertoire.

Ms. Auld also performs a series called "Music in the Gardens" presenting works for solo unaccompanied flute in various community gardens.

Carla Auld holds a Bachelor of Arts Degree from Temple University and has studied with Julius Baker, Bernard Goldberg, Robert Dick and Gerardo Levy. As an educator, she is a founding member of the New Jersey Flute Choir Day and was a part of the project's coaching team from 1995-2008. Ms. Auld is also a Founding member of the New Jersey Flute Society. She maintains a private teaching studio in her home.

Carla Auld-Reviews

It is really a beautiful recording!

Mark O'Connor, Grammy Winning Violinist

You sound terrific!

Gary Schocker, Flutist and Composer

The stylistic variety of your playing certainly gives a lot of life to the performance.

Jonathon A. Landell, Master Flute Maker, Landell Flutes

Music that is as creative as it is delightful...the performers are consistently splendid...its ensemble blend and polish speaks volumes for the conscientiousness of its approach...the sound quality is exactly the way I like it: both warm and crisp.

Lynn René Bayley, Contributor, Fanfare Magazine

...beguiling...perfect technical command...music made for listening ease and pleasure. Strongly recommended.

Jerry Dubins, Editor, Fanfare Magazine
