William Maselli- BIOGRAPHY

William Maselli is a composer and producer working principally in opera, having composed the vocal and orchestral work John F Kennedy Requiem as well as the operas Spirit Fire and, most recently, Draculette. Maselli has composed the song cycles Dreams Of Love, Easter Songs, Flowers, and Finnish Songs, as well as hundreds of songs in various styles.

Maselli has recently released a new recording of the John F Kennedy Requiem, which was premiered in November of 2004 in Carnegie Hall. Maselli also produced the premiere performances of Easter Songs and Dreams Of Love, featuring soprano Adina Aaron, the premiere of Flowers in 2005 featuring Kevin Burdette, and a concert featuring Marc Heller involving premieres by Alfred Heller and John Musto as well as arias from Spirit Fire, all in Carnegie Hall. Last season Maselli produced a series of vocal concerts in Carnegie, starring the legendary Alessandra Marc and Brazilian star Marianni Ebert.

Future plans involve a concert version premiere of Draculette at Lincoln Center in 2012-13, performances of the Requiem, and composition of a new historically-based opera. Maselli is currently composing and recording a new series of vocal works with soprano Olga Zhuravel and others.
