Biography

Miguel A. Villanueva is the most active flute soloist in Mexico. His recordings include the whole work for flute by Mexican composer Eduardo Angulo and Flute Concertos by Eugenio Toussaint, Horacio Uribe, Lucía Álvarez and many others.

Besides his soloist career, he organizes the National Flute Festival and the National Flute ompetition in Mexico City.

Born in México City, he started his musical studies at the Escuela Nacional de Música (UNAM) with Roxana Lara and Héctor Jaramillo. In 1984 he enters the Ecole Normale de Musique de Paris and the Conservatoire National de Region de Saint-Maur, in Paris, France, where he is awarded a Diplome Superieur d'Excecution and Médaille d'Or respectively. His teachers were: Jacques Royer, Ida Ribera, Shigenori Kudo and Michel Morages. During his student years, he was awarded a First Prize at both the Nerini and Bellan Competitions in Paris; he also won a Third Prize at the UFAM International Competition. He has been invited to perform as a soloist by the Münchener Streicher-ensemble, the Orchestre de la Cité Universitaire and the most important orchestras in Mexico. He was invited by the Berliner – Mozart Ensemble to perform as principal flute during a European tour. As a recitalist, he has performed in México, France, England, Germany, Austria, Portugal and the Czech Republic. Mr. Villanueva holds a teaching position at the Escuela Nacional de Música at the National University of México (UNAM).
