BIOGRAPHY

Albert Moehring is the founder and Music Director of the highly acclaimed Charlotte Philharmonic Orchestra (now in its 18th season). Moehring developed a fledgling group of musicians into a highly skilled 75 member professional symphonic orchestra. He is also widely sought after guest conductor performing classical, operatic and popular literature with many orchestras around the USA, Canada, Mexico and Asia.

In 2003, Maestro Moehring spent three weeks traveling throughout Asia conducting the Hollywood Festival Orchestra. In the fall of 2005 Moehring began conducting the State of Mexico Symphony Orchestra and the Guanajuato Symphony Orchestra and held workshops for the musicians. This affiliation continues to the present day. His popularity with the musicians and audiences, with seven standing ovations at one concert, resulted in continuing engagements with these orchestras plus additional invitations including the Mexico City Symphony Orchestra.

Born in Amsterdam, Holland, Albert Moehring received his musical training, performance diploma/music degree at the prestigious Royal Conservatory of Music and University of Toronto in Canada. He pursued conducting studies and training at the Aspen School of Music in Aspen, Colorado. He has worked and studied with renowned conductors as Walter Susskind, Leonard Bernstein, Leonard Slatkin and Peter Maag. His past musical affiliations and engagements include the prestigious Metropolitan Opera Company in New York and the Canadian Opera Company in Toronto, Canada.

His dedication and unique concept for programming has made the concert hall accessible to the entire community. His energy and passion coupled with his charismatic personality for the music has brought the Charlotte arts community to a new level of excellence and achievement.

Maestro Moehring brings concert audiences the music they love ---- innovative programming blending classic music and Broadway show tunes. Under his leadership, the Charlotte Philharmonic Orchestra has experienced tremendous musical growth and earned the Philharmonic recognition as one of the finest orchestras in the Southeast United States and an outstanding asset to the Charlotte arts community.

In 2000, Moehring was awarded the “Spirit Award” sponsored by the Charlotte Mint Museum on behalf of the City of Charlotte.

The Philharmonic and Maestro Moehring have been recognized on several occasions by the Mayor of Charlotte proclaiming “Charlotte Philharmonic Orchestra Day” for the contribution the orchestra has made to the life of the city.

“Charlotte is fortunate to have Albert Moehring in the community. He has done a wonderful job of developing the Charlotte Philharmonic into one of our finest cultural resources. The concerts are family friendly and offer our residents quality, fun, entertainment.” Charlotte Mayor Pat McCrory

Voted “Charlotte’s Best” by Charlotte Magazine, the Maestro and the orchestra were recognized for their artistic merits and affordable pricing making it possible for many more residents of the local community to enjoy live orchestral music.

Also under Maestro Moehring’s direction, the Charlotte Philharmonic recorded thirteen CD recordings and six DVDs/television specials. The Charlotte Philharmonic Orchestra is currently working on its seventh television special. Philharmonic television specials are aired internationally on PBS stations before audiences of 95,000,000 plus viewers. The last Philharmonic television special aired in 44 states, Canada and Mexico.

On Christmas Eve 2004, “Holiday Spectacular” was the highest rated program on Los Angeles public television station KLCS.

Charlotte public radio station WDAV’s popular broadcast “Carolina Live” regularly features live cuts from Philharmonic concerts.

- Board Development – Experienced in budgeting and presentations to board of orchestras needs; seek out and train new board members; close working relationship with entire board of directors and committees.

DUTIES PERFORMED AS EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

As Executive Director, Albert Moehring was responsible for hiring, supervision and managing of all human and financial resources of the Charlotte Philharmonic Society. Under his financial oversight, the Society was able to fulfill its mission and achieve its goals for artistic excellence, financial stability, audience development, and community engagement. Moehring fostered positive relationships among the area public and private schools, area post-secondary institutions, and the community music schools. He nurtured productive relationships with government leaders, foundations, other arts organizations and a broad range of other non-profits. He continues to stay current with the latest trends, comparative data, innovations in orchestras and related activities. Albert provides the leadership, vision, and information necessary to allow the Board of Directors to establish policies and strategic plans for the continuing development of the organization. He also directed the organization’s development program and had oversight of the development plan, coordinating solicitation calls, training of support staff and tracking Board development activities, and he continues to maintain strong professional and personal relationships with the donor community.

Albert Moehring was responsible and accountable for all aspects of the organization's management and operations, including: development and fundraising, marketing and audience development, budgeting and financial management, audits, authoring and preparing portfolios for corporate presentations, artistic administration, concert production, public relations, human resource management, collective bargaining negotiations, educational activities, and community relations. He also maintained relations with the orchestra's auxiliary organizations.

As chief operating officer of the Society and ex officio member of the Board of Directors, Mr. Moehring reported to the Board of Directors. His duties included: to facilitate and support the work of the Board and its committees, and ensure that the Board and its committees are properly staffed. As Executive Director, Moehring added impetus to the fundraising efforts of the Board, as well as supervising, motivate, evaluate and provide leadership to the administrative staff. Additionally, he developed and maintained a professional environment that allowed the Music Director, musicians of the orchestra, guest artists and company members to do their best work.

As the spokesperson for the Philharmonic Orchestra in the Charlotte community, Moehring established and maintained productive working relationships with other arts, educational, and community organizations in the area and sought opportunities for partnerships that support the mission and goals of the Charlotte Philharmonic Orchestra.

SKILLS

Excellent musicianship and conducting skills; able to convey passion for music to both orchestra and audience; ability to inspire and communicate musically and verbally with audiences of all ages, both on and off the stage; broad and extensive knowledge of repertoire (classics, opera, pops, Broadway, seasonal, motion picture scores); ability to garner the respect and trust of musicians; possess uncompromising musical standards that result in the orchestra's optimal performance; proven record of building/developing orchestra and audiences; strong skills in interpersonal relationships and communication; a team leader and player.
